

IMPROVING SPECIAL SPORTS MANAGEMENT CAPABILITY DIY-CENTRAL

by nawan primasoni, danang wicaksono, prof siswantoyo

ABSTRACT

This community service aims to provide knowledge, understanding, and skills in managing special sports classes that are effective, efficient towards the management paradigm based on sports management. This community service will provide benefits including: increasing the knowledge, understanding, and skills of administrators of special sports classes in Yogyakarta and Central Java about the management of special sports classes that are effective, efficient. Reducing and preventing various organizational conflicts in managing and fostering special sports classes. Improve the quality of management of special sports classes in DIY-Central Java, which in turn improve the quality of special sports classes in Indonesia. The aim of this training is for the organizers of special sports classes in Yogyakarta and Central Java. Administrators who are still actively running school organizations with the expectation that they preferably serve as school principals, secretaries, or treasurers, sports teachers, trainers in sports classes. Each school can send a maximum of 3 representatives

Kata Kunci: Manajemen