

habituation literacy training for Junior High schools in Sleman

by Esti Swatika Sari, Setyawan Pujiono, Kastam Syami

ABSTRACT

This training is motivated by the desire to help instill literacy needs in school. This is simply not just because it is in line with Permendikbud 21/2015 or also supports Gerakan Literasi School/GLS (School Literacy Movement), but rather want to rooting early literacy activities. Emergency read-mentioned Minister of Education at that time (2014) that a thousand people, only one person who wanted to read, create their own concerns. So even after a previously conducted research among students about literacy activities, and the result was the same. The average of the students want to read and write just for the task. Therefore, a team of devotees want to start from the middle school to give a variety of ways habituation literacy to do in school. This activity involved the teachers of subjects Indonesian junior high school in Sleman totaling 21 people. This training takes place in the Seminar Room, 2nd floor GK I FBS UNY. The training is conducted over three meetings, on 23-25 August 2015. The methods used include workshops, practice, and demonstration. In addition, there accompaniment performed by a team to schools.

This activity resulted in the design of literacy habituation. Participants berantusias enough to follow this training and there are no major obstacles. At the moment it is known that the teacher mentoring is good enough habituation literacy efforts in their respective schools. Most of the participants in literacy habituation, 15 minutes before the learning is done.

Kata Kunci: habituation, literacy, junior high school