

Manajemen Pelatnas Atletik SEA Games tahun 2022

by Iismadiana, Ria Lumintuarso, Agung Nugroho

ABSTRACT

Abstract This study aims to determine and analyze the management implementation of the 2022 Sea Games Athletics Training Center. This type of research is descriptive quantitative and qualitative (mixed methods). The subjects in this study were the administrators of the Athletics Training Center. This research data was collected by means of observation, interviews, documentation and questionnaires. This research was conducted from March to August 2022. The data analysis technique used in this research is quantitative and qualitative descriptive analysis by describing and interpreting the data from each component, both quantitative data and qualitative data. The data from the questionnaire instrument was analyzed quantitatively and the data from the interviews were analyzed qualitatively. The results of this study. it can be concluded that the level of Management of the 2022 SEA Games National Training Center based on planning is in the very good category, the organization is in the very good category, the implementation is very good, and the supervision is in the very good category. Keywords; Management, Athletic Training, Sea Games

Kata Kunci: Management, Athletic Training, Sea Games