

LIBRARY MANAGEMENT TRAINING FOR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TEACHERS IN DISTRICT EDUCATIONAL OFFICE, PURWOREJO, PURWOREJO

by Dr. Setya Raharja, M.Pd., Meilina Bustari, M.Pd., Pandit Isbianti, M.Pd.

ABSTRACT

This community service aimed to: (1) improve the skill of elementary school teachers and elementary school library staffs in managing school library, (2) improve the understanding of elementary school teachers and elementary school library staffs to raise student's reading interest, and (3) support elementary school teachers and elementary school library staffs to develop elementary school library in Purworejo. This community service conduct by using "in-on" design method which consist of some steps. This following steps are: give theoretical and practical materials through interactive classical class, give tutorial, do independent practice and visit the elementary school library to give evaluation. The participants of this community service are 30, who consist of elementary school teachers and also elementary school library staffs in Purworejo. This following are the result of this community service activity: (1) teacher's and school library staff's skills in managing school library is improved that can seen from their practice in inventory, book classifying, cataloging and labelling, completing the book of materials, and shelving, (2) teachers's and school library staff's understanding to raise student's reading interest is improved which indicated by some ideas and programs to raise student's reading interest that will implemented in school, (3) Teachers and also school library staffs fix the school library by organizing library's room and also shelving.

Kata Kunci: library management, elementary school library, student's reading interest.