

Vocational High School Learning Quality Improvement Efforts through Reconstruction of Learning Documents and Development of Teaching Materials

by Putu Sudira, Soenarto, Pardjono, Umi Rohayati

ABSTRACT

The implementation of this activity aims to describe the results of the learning evaluation (development of Teaching Materials Learning and Development Documents) in SMK 1 Saptosari, knowing how high the level of understanding related to learning achieved by trainees, an effort to improve the learning quality of vocational secondary schools through learning document reconstruction and development of teaching materials in Saptosari 1 Vocational High School, as well as describing the products of Learning Document Reconstruction and Development of Teaching Materials at Saptosari 1 Vocational High School. The workshop was attended by 27 participants consisting of productive subject teachers and no productive from SMK 1 Saptosari. In general there is an increase in understanding, the quality of learning through the reconstruction of learning documents and the development of teaching materials related to learning in SMK 1 Saptosari. The competencies achieved from the participants were able to describe the results of the reconstruction of teaching materials. The implementation evaluation revealed that the participants were satisfied with the implementation of the activity

Kata Kunci: Lesson Plan