

Social Studies Teaching Materials Based on Blended Learning to Develop Professional Competencies of Primary Teacher Candidates

by Anwar Senen, Sekar Purbarini K, Hidayati, Mujinem

ABSTRACT

The Application of IT in social studies teaching materials is in accordance with the results of the assessment analysis of PGSD students who generally want the need for the application of IT in social studies teaching materials. The results of the development of social studies teaching materials based on blended learning can also be said to be meaningful and useful. Among them answering: 1) blended learning trains students' ability to develop social studeies material of more agree 84% and blended learning facilitates students in understanding the ideal of more agree 83%.

Kata Kunci: Keywords: Social studies teaching material, blended learning, PGSD students