

NONFORMAL EDUCATION FOR ADVANCED AGE OF AGE IN BEJIHARJO VILLAGE, KARAMMOJO DISTRICT, GUNUNGKIDUL DISTRICT

by Lutfi Wibawa, Sugito

ABSTRACT

Research with the title "Non-Formal Education for Elderly Residents in Bejiharjo Village, Karangmojo Subdistrict, Gunungkidul Regency", Aims: 1). resulted in an in-depth study of the elderly community in Bejiharjo Village, Karangmojo District, Gunungkidul Regency. 2). Study of the role of non-formal education in Bejiharjo Village, Karangmojo Subdistrict, Gunungkidul Regency in village development towards elderly friendly villages. The method used in this study is qualitative, data collection with focus group discussion, in-depth interviews, documentation and observation. The results showed: 1). The elderly community in Bejiharjo Village, Karangmojo Subdistrict, Gunungkidul Regency, amounted to 13 associations. The elderly community is at the village level and also in the village level. The Elderly Association is established with the aim of providing clear direction and structured activities in providing services to the elderly. 2). Non-formal education activities held in support of elderly-friendly villages consist of training and counseling activities for cadres of the elderly community and also for the elderly. The purpose of this non-formal education activity is to provide counseling, understanding and insight to the cadres of the elderly community which is then conveyed to the elderly.

Kata Kunci: Non-formal Education, Elderly Friendly Villages, Elderly