

WORKSHOP OF PROCESSING FISH FROM CATTLE BREADERS IN THE VILLAGE OF PEDUKUHAN KLEPU, KECAMATAN MINGGIR, KABUPATEN SLEMAN

by Heru Pratomo Al., Regina Tutik P dan P. Yatiman

ABSTRACT

This community service program (PPM) aimed to give the skill for processing fish to the women in the village of Pedukuhan Klepu, Minggir, Sleman and to improve the interest of the participants in consuming fish. The activity was carried out by using information method and fish processing practice guided by the executor of this activity. The participants of the activity were 21 women in the village of Pedukuhan Klepu, Minggir, Sleman. The target indicator showed that more than 70% of the participants understood the material of the training, more than 60% of the participants could practice in preparing nugget, and fish stick and more than 10% of the participants had motivation to try on the new work in the field of the fish processing according to this activity. The conclusion of this activity were (1) the participants had the skill for processing fish, particularly in preparing nugget and fish stick, and (2) the participants interested in trying the process and attempt to improve the consumption of fish in the various fish processing.

Kata Kunci: fish, processing, shredded, and nugget