ABSTRACT

This PPM program is an implementation of the Research Group's research entitled "The Concept of Tolerance in Historical Textbooks (Especially the 1994 Curriculum)". However, in the implementation of the PPM the servant uses the 2013 curriculum which is the reference curriculum of SMA N 6 Yogyakarta. Sikap tolerance needs to be instilled and familiarized in everyday life. therefore, through this PPM the dedication makes an implementation model of planting tolerance in learning history. This PPM program was held in September 2018. The Servants Team collaborated with history subject teachers. The results of the PPM Program are that students are more interested in learning history with a model provided by the dedication team. besides, implicitly and explicitly, the cultivation of a culture of tolerance is seen in the study of history.
