

The role of social capital in women's livelihoods in the South Merapi Slopes i

by Hastuti and Mawanti W

ABSTRACT

Abstract

The purpose of this research is to know: 1. Characteristics of women on the South Merapi Slope. 2. Social Capital, 3. The role of social capital in women's livelihoods. Research sites in Sempu Hamlet, Pakem Binangun, Pakem, Sleman, DIY. Research Variables: Socio-economic characteristics of women's household demographics, social capital, and women's livelihoods. Analysis of research data can be divided into quantitative data analysis and qualitative data. Frequency tables are used to explain the pattern and distribution of characteristics of these variables. Results of the study: 1. Characteristics of women in South Slapi Merapi are mostly: productive age, education is mostly high school, work is mostly housewives, and income is mostly in the low income group, 2. Social capital accessed by women in South Slapi Merapi most of it is rewang and farming, 3. The role of social capital in women's livelihoods in the South Merapi Slopes is to increase income and support family livelihoods.

Keywords: Merapi Slopes Women - Social Capital - Livelihoods

Kata Kunci: Merapi Slopes Women, Social Capital, Livelihoods