ABSTRACT

Macapatan JUmat Legen's activity aims to socialize the Department of Regional Language Education to the general public. This year, the implementation of Macapatan Friday Legen is somewhat different from previous years, inviting high school students in Yogyakarta area. In addition to echoing Javanese arts and culture among the students, this activity managed to get a positive response from students. In this activity, the fiber discussed is the Wulang Putri fiber that matches the challenge of Javanese women today.
