LEARNING MEDIA DEVELOPMENT BASED OF INFORMATION TECHOLOGY BY MAKING E-MODULE USING FLIPBOOK FOR INCREASING TEACHING COMPETENCY OF THE TEACHER

by Muhammad Munir, A. Awaluddin Baiti, Muhammad Izzudin M., Bonita Destiana

ABSTRACT

The Empowerment to Society Program aims to: (1) Increasing the teacher competence in developing learning media based information technology (2) The Learning process can be interactive, creative, and innovative, and (3) Increasing motivation and study achievement of the student. This activity form to training about making of learning media using Flipbook. This training takes place in SMP N 1 Wonosari, Gunungkidul, Special Region of Yogyakarta. The object of this program is amount to 25 teachers. This course consists of subject teachers in SMP N 1 Wonosari . The method to learn is using tutorial and simulation. This program held on 18th – 21st July 2016 in SMPN 1 Wonosari and followed by 49 participants. The material of this course delivered by 3 speakers from Major of Electronics and Informatics Education. The raw of this program are (1) The Explanation about Learning Media (2) Module VS E – Module and (3) Making of Storyboard. The activity of this program is making a storyboard and E-Module using Flipbook software started from installation until how to use. Most of the participant enthusiastic with this program because they think it will be usefully for them because the result is very interesting. But, some teacher gets difficulties to operating their laptop. This training guided by the instructor and helped by some of the students of our university. The participants are given a flash that contains the material in this training. Overall this program of activities can be held properly marked with may have produced a number of IT-based instructional media (e-module) from the respective subject teachers.

Kata Kunci: learning media, information technology, Flipbook