

IMPLEMENTATION OF JAVANESE ETHICAL AND JAVANESE CULTURE VALUE

by Suharti, Endang Nurhayati, Sri Harti Widyastuti, Erna Istikomah

ABSTRACT

Abstract

The people who involved in this PPM are residents of Dukuh Sembur, Tirtomartani, Kalasan, Sleman, Special Region of Yogyakarta. Like the Javanese, the people of Dukuh Sembur live in strict Javanese values and ethics. The PPM activity entitled Implementation of Javanese Cultural Ethics and Values is useful for revitalizing the ethics and values of Javanese culture for the lives of the Dukuh Sembur people. Method of activities with seminars, workshops, and competitions. Seminar and workshop material includes Javanese, Sesorah, and Javanese tales. Participants who attended the PPM activities reached 76 people. All participants are housewives. This activity was held on April 21, 2019 to coincide with the commemoration of Kartini Day and the routine social gathering of the Dukuh Sembur mothers. The participants seemed enthusiastic about following the PPM activities as evidenced by the participants' active participation.

Kata Kunci: Implementation, ethics, values, Javanese culture