

TRAINING FOR AUTENTIC ASSESSMENT INSTRUMENTS FOR ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TEACHER

by Badrun Kartowagiran, Djemari mardapi, Harun, Amat Jaedun, Widiastuti

ABSTRACT

Abstract

Community Service Activities (CSA) is a formulation of training questions school exams for selected elementary teachers who aim to provide understanding and experience to teachers on: 1) assessment principles, 2) drafting assessment and grid problems, 3) the preparation of questions, and 4) analyzing the items. This CSA activity is carried out by training method consisting of training drafting of grading appraisals and lattice, problem-building training, and training analysis of item by using ITEMAN software. Target audiences in activities this is the elementary school teacher in Bantul District of Yogyakarta Special Region amounted to 30 people. The results of this PPM activity are: 1) the teacher is able to understand the principles of assessment, 2) the teacher is able to formulate the assessment and grid design questions, 3) the teacher is able to compile questions, and 4) teachers are able to analyze items with ITEMAN.

Kata Kunci: training, compilation of questions, elementary school teacher