

TRAINING OF BATIK MAKING AS AN EFFORTS FOR EMPOWERING PKK WOMEN, DUKUH JABAN, TRIDADI VILLAGE, SLEMAN DISTRICT DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC

by Ismadi, I Ketut Sunarya, Edin Suhaedin Purnama Giri, Angga Sukma Permana, Muhammad Yaasin, Mufidhatul Afifah, Ayuk Tri Astuti

ABSTRACT

This community service program aims to: 1) describe training in making batik motifs for PKK women in Jaban Village, Tridadi Ward, Sleman District, Sleman Regency, Yogyakarta; and 2) describe the results of the training on batik making for PKK women in Jaban Village, Tridadi Ward, Sleman District, Sleman Regency, Yogyakarta.

The methods used in this program are presentations, demonstrations, and individual and group practice. The form of activity is training in making batik motifs and the process of making batik with the target being 17 people from PKK Jaban Village, Tridadi Ward, Sleman District, Sleman Regency, Yogyakarta. The activity was held on 04, 05, 11, and 12 September 2021 with a duration of 4 days x 8 hours = 32 hours of meetings.

The results of this activity are: 1) the training process includes making designs and patterns of batik motifs, making batik with the canting and stamping techniques, coloring batik with the colet technique, training in canting with the aim of protecting the color (nemboki), dyeing batik with dyeing techniques, and removing dyes. batik night/wax (pelorodan); 2) the result of the training is the increased insight and skills of PKK women in Jaban Village, Tridadi Ward, Sleman District, Sleman Regency, Yogyakarta who previously did not really understand the technique of making batik, now they know and even understand that they can make their own work in the form of batik cloth that will be used. for PKK uniforms.

Kata Kunci: Training, Batik, Empowerment