ABSTRACT

The objectives of this training activity are to: 1) guide the preparation made by junior high school students in the face of the music competition at FLS2N Bantul Yogyakarta; 2) knowing the things prepared by the teacher in assisting and training their students in the face of the music competition at FLS2N Bantul Yogyakarta.

The preparation of students' activities in the face of FLS2N music competition was attended by 50 students consisting of 40 students who participated in choir training, and 10 students who participated in the guitar competition. The students are 7th and 8th grade students. In the implementation, they are assisted by 1 teacher, Tatik, S. Pd. This training activity was carried out in State Middle School 1, Bantul, Yogyakarta, from March to May 2018. The methods and patterns of implementation used in this training activity were tutorial, imitation, and drill methods.

The results of the preparation of the music competition for FLS2N were as follows: 1) students were very enthusiastic, and more confident in participating in this activity, especially in classical guitar and choir practice; 2) the teacher provides routine assistance, and invites experts in the field of guitar and choir. In order for student preparation to be maximized, this training activity needs to be followed up, to provide confidence to students, and to strengthen students mentally, in addition to instilling a sense of musicality and togetherness in the choir.
