

Performance of Angklung Electric Accompaniment Ketoprak - Gejog Lesung 71st Anniversary of Tirtomartani Village Kalasan

by A.M.Susilo Pradoko, Fu'adi, M.G.Widyastuti, Diah K.

ABSTRACT

ABSTRACT

This community service aims to provide music skills. The training was in the form of electric angklung music training and manual angklung combined with Gejog Lesung to accompany Traditional Ketoprak. Music training for the people of Glondong hamlet. After completing the training the ketoprak music accompaniment was staged in the framework of the 71st Tirtomartani Village Anniversary. The monitoring was held on April 21, 2018 at the Tirtomartani Village Hall in Kalasan.

This PPM activity adopts a research process with the Action Research method, before taking community service actions to first design an accompaniment music arrangement design. Arrangements that have been made are intended to provide a reinforcement illustration of Ketoprak staging under the title Kidung Asmoro Bandung Bondowoso.

The results of the PPM Activities are as follows: PPM Musik Training, conducted 10 times face-to-face training. There were as many as 43 people who were trained to accompany Ketoprak. The community was able to stage the Ketoprak Accompaniment with an appearance on April 21, 2018 at the Tirtomartani Village Hall in Kalasan. This performance is in the framework of the anniversary of the Tirtomartani Kalasan Village. This activity can have an impact on strengthening the creative economy of the community through accompaniment cultural tourism in the context of performing ketoprak. The response of the audience and the officials in the Kelurahan was very good, giving rise to artistic creativity to strengthen the community's resources in the Tirtomartani Kalasan environment. This activity also received attention from the media, as evidenced on April 24, a review of this performance appeared in the Kedaulatan Rakyat Daily.

Kata Kunci: Keywords: Electric angklung, accompaniment, ketoprak