

Online Training In Fun And Easy Learning During Pandemic For Elementary School Teachers in Bantul District

by Ariyawan Agung Nugroho, Sugeng Bayu Wahyono, Dian Wahyuningsih

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this community service activity is to increase teacher knowledge about student characteristics, design and implement fun and easy learning during the pandemic, and design learning that is appropriate to learning conditions during the pandemic.

This activity was carried out online with the subject of elementary school teachers in the Bantul Regency area. This activity is carried out using lecture methods, tutorials and online questions and answers, then continued with asynchronous activities. From this PPM activity, it can be seen that there is an increase in teacher knowledge about student characteristics, design and implementation of fun and easy learning during the pandemic, and learning designs that are in accordance with learning conditions during the pandemic, as evidenced by the results of learning design products that are in accordance with student characteristics. and school.

Kata Kunci: Online Training, Fun Learning, Easy Learning