ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE TRAINING FOR LEARNING GERMAN AT SMA NEGERI 2 SURAKARTA

by Sulis Triyono, Wening Sahayu, Lia Malia, Sri Megawati

ABSTRACT

Lecturer activities out of campus in the form of community service activities (PkM) Lecturers from the Department of German Language Education German Language Education, Faculty of Languages, Arts and Culture, Yogyakarta State University are Artificial Intelligence Training for German Language Learning. The purpose of this Lecturer PkM activity is as follows: following: (1) provide experience and skills to teachers in preparing complete learning tools, (2) provide training to teachers in preparing teaching materials using artificial intelligence, (3) lecturers can carry out activities outside the campus that have MGMP Solo Raya Central Java partners. Thus, the German Language Education Department produced an Implementation Agreement (Letter of Cooperation) with MGMP Solo Raya. These are partners who have worked together in the context of PkM activities the previous year. The form of this PkM activity is in the form of training for German language teachers who are members of the MGMP Solo Raya Central Java and several teachers from Salatiga, Boyolali, Central Java. The number of participants is 20 people. Training was held at SMA Santo Yosep Surakarta and SMA Negeri 2 Surakarta. Activities carried out for one semester. Offline training will be held on April 23 and May 30 2023. The third and fourth months of training will be online. The output of this PkM activity is an article submitted to the journal INOTEKS LPPM Yogyakarta State University.

Kata Kunci: Artificial Intelligence, Training for German Language Learning