

Development of Village Apparatus Capacity in Preparing Government Performance Indicators to Improve Village Government Accountability

by Utami Dewi, Sugi Rahayu, Kurnia Nur Fitriana

ABSTRACT

This program aims to: 1) improve understanding and capacity of the apparatus and community of Jatisarono Village on the importance of formulating village government performance indicators to realize accountability. 2) improving the performance of village government in implementing development programs and providing services to the community. 3) increasing community participation and stakeholders in formulating performance indicators and achieving village government performance. The target audience of this PPM program is the whole Pamong Jatisarono Village, Nanggulan District Kulon Progo Regency, members of BPD, representatives of community leaders, BUMDES board members, LPMD members, youth and PKK 35 people. Activities in the PPM is done by lecture method to convey material about the preparation of the Main Performance indicator by PERMENPAN No. PER / 20 / MENPAN / 11/2008. Other methods in this PPM are Focus Group Discussion, training and mentoring the preparation of development programs for Jatisarono village apparatus, Nanggulan, Kulon Progo. A total of 37 participants attended at the time of socialization and 35 participants during the mentoring activities preparation of performance indicators Village government. The results of the program show that the participants' knowledge about the preparation of indicators of village government performance increases This is evident from the answers when the verbal post test provided by the devotees and mentoring activities in which the participants have been able to arrange performance indicators well. In addition, the results of the development program have also looked at the potential aspects and problems faced by the people of Jatisarono Village, Nanggulan, Kulon Progo. Assistance activities have resulted in guidelines for the formulation of village government performance indicators. Implementation of PPM program can be run in accordance with the plan and the target that has been determined is seen from the enthusiasm of the participants during the training, FGD and assistance and the level of satisfaction of the PPM participants to this PPM program.

Kata Kunci: capacity improvement, performance indicator, village government