

CLIMATE CREATION TRAINING SCHOOL TO BUILD STUDENT DISCIPLINE CHARACTER

by WURI WURYANDANI, FATHURROHMAN, HARYANI

ABSTRACT

This activity aims to enhance teachers' understanding and skills in designing programs to create a classroom climate that is conducive in the context of the implementation process of character education discipline.

The target of this PPM is the primary teachers of Muhammadiyah in Yogyakarta, amounting to 25 people. The training methods are lectures, discussions, and workshops.

The results showed that the activities of PPM activities went smoothly because it is supported by the good cooperation of the School Koordinasi Agency (BKS) Muhammadiyah Yogyakarta. Participants follow the activities with great enthusiasm and demonstrate an understanding of the classroom climate that is conducive to education discipline character. It is characterized by the ability of the participants to answer the questions of the speakers. The results of the next activity is the product of the creation of the program design class climate that is conducive to student discipline. This activity started since students from home to go home again. The results of the product showed that teachers make products with good category because it is in accordance with the standards established in training.

Kata Kunci: school climate, discipline