

Developing Student Learning Objectives (SLOs) as a SMART-based Approach Integrated Assessment to Improve the professional competence oDEVELOPMENT OF SLOs AS AN INTEGRATED ASSESSMENT BASED SMART APPROACH TO INCREASE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDENT TEACHER COMPETENCE IN THE IMPLEMENTATION OF CURRICULUM 2013

by Woro Sri Hastuti, S.Pd.,M.Pd, Sekar Purbarini Kawuryan, SIP., M.Pd, Supartinah, S.Pd., M.Hum

ABSTRACT

This research aims to develop a Student Learning Objectives (SLOs) as a SMART-based approach integrated assessment which is arranged for elementary school students in order to achieve professional competences on developing scientific approach based assessment that appropriate to Curriculum 2013. Especially, this research focuses on: 1) developing SLOs composer guidance as SMART-based integrated assessment to build an effective learning on the implementation of Curriculum of 2013; 2) gathering empirical evidences of elementary school teacher student abilities in creating and developing design, final learning objectives, evaluation and learning target based on Curriculum of 2013; and 3) gathering empirical data of their worthy This developmental research adopted of Four-D's Model procedures such as define, design, develop and disseminate. Hence, this research is done till develop step with limited trials. Elementary school teacher students of S1 PGSD FIP UNY are involved in this research. Data were gathered through observation and documentation of final products. All of data were analyzed by descriptive of qualitative with percentage of achievement.

Research findings proved that it has been developed SLOs model as an integrated assessment which is validated by limited trials. Results reveal that 1) SLOs composer guidance have helped students as elementary school teacher candidate on the implementation of Curriculum of 2013; 2) Some groups of student found difficulties in creating final learning objectives, evaluation and learning target based on Curriculum of 2013 but all of them have passed the based line of the passing grade of worthy achievement; and 3) products as a final result are worthy to be implemented.

Kata Kunci: SLOs, Integrated assessment, elementary school