

Character Based On Football Training Football School Coach Se-Sleman

by Sulistiyono, M.Pd, Bagyo Irianto, M.Pd, Nawan Primasoni, M.Or

ABSTRACT

Community service performed by a team of stewards of FIK UNY aims to improve the knowledge, skills and ability to formulate and apply a model-based exercise in character development school football coaches throughout Sleman. The method used by the training model with the theoretical material in class and lab work in the field. The results obtained after the implementation of the PPM is 1) a change of mindset in the coaches that success in coaching the players a young age not only assessed on the achievements in the championship, but that can be done is to develop character values ??positively the students, 2) changes in knowledge, understanding of the concept of character , 3) increasing skills trainers in preparing the character-based training program, 4) the coach is able to organize and lead the exercise-oriented character. Keywords: training, football, character

Kata Kunci: Character, Football Training, Football School