

TRAINING LEARNING EVALUATION FOR ECONOMICS TEACHER OF SECONDARY HIGH SCHOOL IN REGIONS IS SPECIAL YOGYAKARTA

by Nurhadi, Sugiharsono, Djazari M, Siswanto

ABSTRACT

The purpose of Community Service is to; (a) improving the ability of senior high school economics teachers in DIY to create a grid as a guide in the compilation of questions; (b) improving the ability of high school economics teachers in DIY in analyzing the assessment results; (c) improving the ability of high school economics teachers in DIY in utilizing the results of the assessment analysis. The target audience of community service is high school economics teacher of DIY. This PPM implementation method is training and mentoring. Teachers are trained to conduct a series of assessment activities since the preparation of the grid, the development of the questionnaire, and test the validity and reliability of the test. For the questions in the form of a description, teachers are given signs how good questions should be made. This Community Service Program was held on Thursday, September 3, 2015 in the Faculty of Economy Classroom, the result of this dedication was Participants who attended the event of 39 people from 40 Teachers who joined in MGMP of DIY Economy, or attended 97% invitation. This PPM activity can provide insight into knowledge about; (a) the concept and necessity of Evaluation in Learning; (b) Urgency of Buti Analysis of exam questions in learning (c). Analysis of validity and reliability of questions. After the delivery of materials and discussion, the next stage of devotion is carried out and the monitoring of the development of learning and monitoring evaluation conducted by the team of devotees with the results show that the participants have done various improvement activities in evaluating the learning that is done in each school.

Kata Kunci: Learning, evaluation, economics