ABSTRACT

Classroom Action Research is one of the efforts that a professional teacher can make in improving the quality of learning. The CAR writing training in this service activity aims to: (1) Improve the understanding of teachers at SMA N 2 Banguntapan about CAR and (2) Improve the ability of teachers in writing CAR reports. The methods used in the service activities are lecture and demonstration methods. The lecture method is to convey the principles of CAR, CAR procedures, CAR implementation, and CAR report writing procedures, while the demonstration method is to provide opportunities for teachers to practice. The training resulted in four findings. First, the PPM activities can run well and smoothly and the participants' assessment of the PPM implementation is also very good. Second, the participants experienced an increased understanding of the preparation of CAR proposals. Third, the motivation and enthusiasm to participate in the training was very high because the responses given by the participants were very active during the training and mentoring process. Fourth, the service participants felt happy and satisfied with this service activity and hoped that similar activities could continue to be carried out in the future.
