

TRAINING OF LEARNING MEDIA FOR HIGH SCHOOL SOCIOLOGY TEACHER IN BANTUL, YOGYAKARTA

by Poerwanti Hadi Pratiwi, Grendi Hendrastomo, Nur Endah Januarti

ABSTRACT

The activity of community services in the form of training to the teacher sociology subjects in high school. This training is intended to equip the teacher sociology at the High School with the knowledge of the media learning; in order to be applied and practiced in sociology classes so that the learning of Sociology became interesting and not boring for students. Target audience is 30 High School sociology teachers incorporated in MGMP Sociology Bantul, Yogyakarta. Learning media development training conducted by the methods of lecture, discussion, and faqs. Lectures varied methods used to convey important concepts to understand by the trainee. The material provided is the type and characteristics of the media (video) learning. While the methods of questioning and discussion provided an opportunity for the participants consulted in understanding media (video) making learning to use the program Windows Movie Maker. The availability of adequate expertise in the development of the learning media in the Department of Educational sociology, the enthusiasm of the participants, support the principal against the implementation of the activities, and supporting funds from the Faculty is supporting the implementation of the activities of the PPM. As for the obstacles faced are different from the basic capabilities of the participants which complicate the servants in Customizing training materials, the flurry of participants lately busy with a variety of tasks from the school that caused the focus they do not total to training materials, and not all computers (desktop, laptop, notebook) teachers has program Windows Movie Maker, so it should install in advance so that it could not continue to make video learning while at home. Although this activity has officially ended. If possible, mentoring toward the Sociology teachers can proceed through the next budget year devotion.

Kata Kunci: media, learning, sociology