

ARTISTIC GYMNASTIC SKILL TALENT IDENTIFYING APPLICATION IN SPECIAL REGION OF YOGYAKARTA

by Endang Rini Sukanti, Sebastianus Pranatahadi, Ratna Budiarti, Wisnu Nugroho

ABSTRACT

Background: Talent scouting is the initial stage to recruit potential athletes who are very potential and capable of achieving high in the future. Related to this, the scouting of talent is very necessary from an early age, especially in the artistic gymnastics. Objective: the purpose of this research is to find out the relationship between the application of scouting for artistic gymnastics with basic skills and to find out the findings of the application of artistic gymnastics giftedness with basic skills to demonstrate the talents of children in Yogyakarta. Sample: The population and sample in this study were elementary school students aged 7-9 years DIY, totaling 50 male and 52 female children. The instruments used in this study were anthropometric tests, biomotor and skills tests. Results: the application of artistic gymnastic talent scouting was significantly related to the results of the basic skills tests of gymnastics owned by the research subjects, the findings on the application with the results of the artistic basic skills test showed the child's talent.

Kata Kunci: Gymnastic Talent Scouting, Gymnastic Skill