

Pengembangan Potensi Masyarakat di Era Pandemi Melalui Pelatihan Aplikasi Hijab Pengantin Muslim

by Warda Indadiyahati, Asi Tritanti, Eni Juniastuti

ABSTRACT

The implementation of the Muslim bridal hijab application training aims to improve (1) understanding of how to apply Muslim bridal hijab (2) how to apply Muslim bridal hijab (3) analyze the level of usefulness and feasibility of the training. The methods of implementing the training are lectures, demonstrations, and practice. The results of the analysis of the usefulness and feasibility of using quantitative techniques to determine the percentage of the results of activities that have been carried out with the subject of the implementation of Ms. PKK Kalurahan Kedungsari Pengasih, Kulon Progo Regency. The results of the training implementation show that (1) the training carried out can add insight and knowledge for participants in training activities who want training activities (2) the evaluation of the training implementation shows that the level of usefulness of the training obtains the percentage of training usefulness reaching 93.28%% which can be categorized if the implementation the training that has been carried out is "very useful", while the percentage of training eligibility includes results, instructors, materials and facilities, respectively, the percentage of training eligibility seen from the instructor aspect reaches a percentage of 92.5% with the "very feasible" category, the percentage of the material aspect reaches the percentage of 95% in the "very feasible" category, the percentage of facilities aspects reaching 95.253% in the "very feasible" category and the aspect of the results of the training implementation reaching 95.67% in the very feasible category

Kata Kunci: Bridal Hijab, Traditional Bridal Modification