

Strengthening Pedagogic Competence For Teachers at LP Ma'arif Yogyakarta Special Teritory through MGMP of the Electronics Engineering and ICT.

by Masduki Zakarijah; Ratna Wardani; Pramudi Utomo; Nurkhamid

ABSTRACT

ABSTRACT

This community service is carried out in order to (1) help teachers who experience problems in webinars assisted learning, (2) help teachers who have difficulty conducting appropriate learning assessments for the learning substance being taught, especially with regard to based learning. work (Work Based Learning) for vocational teachers; (3) affirmation in implementing learning and assessment.

The method of this activity uses the approach: planning, action, affirmation, and evaluation (PTAE) which is carried out by: (1) Planning includes activities: (a) Forming a working group, (b) Socializing the PPM program to two partner institutions (target audience) , (c) Preparation of workshop programs ;. (2) Actions, in the form of implementing the PPM activity program; (3) affirmation program; and (4) program evaluation.

The results obtained indicate that: (1) the online learning technology infrastructure readiness activities through the google meet video conferencing application have been running according to the online learning guide using the google meet application device; (2) Learning material readiness activities in the form of implementing learning in accordance with the characteristics of learning in SMK which is based on the inquiry model, problem based learning, and project based learning; (3) Learning assessment activities that are based on work based learning and high order thinking skills (HOTS).

Kata Kunci: pedagogical competence and vocational teachers.