

Seminar on Classroom Management

by Udik Budi Wibowo, Lantip Diat Prasajo, Arum Dwi Hastutiningsih, Nur Rina Priyani Mirsa, Juwifa Dewi Hayu EK

ABSTRACT

This activity aims to improve teachers' understanding and capacity on effective classroom management, which useful to increase the quality of teaching and learning process.

The Community Service was seminar activity, include discussion and share knowledge, experiences, the best practices, and problems which it face the teachers in managing teaching and learning process. The seminar attended by 22 teachers of eleven senior secondary school, public and private, at Yogyakarta area.

The discussion identified that teachers not only faced problems of subject matter transfer; but the faced problems of managing classroom, i.e. negotiate or mediation to build student disciplin, and build or developed good relationship to students that could be created condusive learning climate, so students could study well and effective. The teachers as seminar participant look antusiastic with indicators as share the best practices, active in the discussion, and question answer session.

Kata Kunci: classroom management, condusive climate, effective teaching and learning process.