ABSTRACT

This study is designed to produce a model of teaching materials for literary learning based on character values contained in biographical novels. Research methods / steps to achieve these goals are selected types of Research and Development (R & D). The research to be carried out is in line with the Research Master Plan at Yogyakarta State University in 2016 – 2020, especially on strategic issues related to the Development of Character Education Based on Local Wisdom. The research roadmap for Character Education Development Based on Local Wisdom consists of eight leading umbrella themes including: cultivating the main character values, local wisdom education curriculum, models for preparing and improving teacher qualifications in implementing character education, models for integrating national character in the learning process, developing character education implementation tools, character education implementation models and partnership networks with educational institutions, training models for the development and implementation of character education, and assessment and evaluation systems for character education.

This research is relevant to the theme of the flagship umbrella, namely the development of character education implementation tools. In the context of this study, the values of the main characters are explored through mindsets, attitude patterns, and behavior patterns that meet the criteria of exemplary figures in various areas of life expressed through biographical novels.
