

MANAGEMENT CHARACTER EDUCATION MODEL-BASED LEARNING ISLAMIC RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AT PTU

by sUPARLAN,m.pD.i

ABSTRACT

Abstract

This study aims to formulate a management character education model based learning Islamic religious education at PTU. This study uses a procedure Research and Development (R & D) conducted several phases, namely: (1) the analysis of the problems and needs, (2) planning, development. Stages of study begins by reviewing the literature and surveys to produce formulation management character education model based PAI learning. Based on these survey results do modeling management character education based PAI learning in PTU. Delphi technique uses to finalize the management character education model based PAI learning. This research was conducted in two College of Public namely UPI Bandung and Universitas Negeri Malang (UM).

Research found that the management character education model based PAI learning is done through (1) Planning to determine the organization's purpose and choose the best way to achieve it. (2) Organizing, is the process of establishing the organization as a whole, (3) scaling is done by every leader / coordinator in the structure organisasi both the university / college / rector, faculty, and students (form a team or not team), and (4). The evaluation is done simultaneously and continuously both in the university / PT, faculty, and class / student evaluations both internal / external.

Kata Kunci: Keywords: Management of Character Education, Islamic Education