

Learning organization culture in schools

by Anik Ghufon

ABSTRACT

This research aims to know deeply about learning organization culture in schools. Results of this research can be used to create the recommendation for improving the quality of curriculum development in secondary schools. This research used qualitative approach. The result of this research was most of the sample respondents have implemented learning organization culture which indicate learning dynamic, organization transformation, knowledge management, and application of technology in daily activities at schools.

Kata Kunci: culture, learning organization, secondary school