

Improving Skills in Processing Various Cakes to Increase Family Income in Margosari District

by Sutriyati Purwanti, dkk

ABSTRACT

In general, this Community Service (PkM) aims to provide insight, education and skills in the culinary field to improve the economy, especially in the community of KB Village, Margosari Pengasih Kulon Progo Village. The knowledge and skills provided to the community include: 1) Knowledge of processing various types of cakes, 2) skills in making and packaging various types of cake products properly, 3) knowing the various types of packaging and labels used, 4) Skills related to calculating prices sell products. PkM activities will be held on August 3-4 2023, at the FV UNY Culinary Pastry Laboratory. The target group for PkM participants is the people of the KB village of Margosari Pengasih Village, Kulon Progo. The methods used are lectures, discussions and questions and answers, as well as practice. The results of PkM activities were analyzed using descriptive techniques with presentation values. The results of PkM activities include participants: 1) Having knowledge in processing various types of cakes, 2) Skilled in making and packaging various types of Indonesian cake and pastry products well, 3) Having knowledge of the types of packaging and labels used, 4) Skilled in calculating product selling price.

Kata Kunci: PPM, cake, dedication, training