

DEVELOPING THE QUALITY OF GERMAN LANGUAGE TEST INSTRUMENT BASED OF IT TO IMPROVING LEARNING PROCESS AND THE PROFESIONALITY OF THE GERMAN LANGUAGE TEACHERS IN D.I. YOGYAKARTA AND JAWA TENGAH

by Wening Sahayu, Sulis Triyono, Sudarmaji, Ahmad Marzuki

ABSTRACT

The aims of this PPM agenda are: (1) improving of understanding of the German language teachers in D.I. Yogyakarta and Jawa Tengah about these steps: planning, product, try out, test analysis through SPSS based of IT; (2) training of the German language teachers in D.I. Yogyakarta and Jawa Tengah to be able to trying out structure test instrument which they made theirselves; (3) training the German language teachers in D.I. Yogyakarta and Jawa Tengah to be able to analysis the structure test which they tried out through SPSS based of IT.

This PPM agenda held in two days. First day: (1) session about the steps of evaluation learning result of student consisted are planning, product, try out and German language structure test analysis; (2) training of structure test analysis through SPSS based of IT. These data that been analyzed based of the instrument test from the teachers and it has been tried out and also they have its qualitative score. Second days: (2) following up to resulting structure test that valid and reliable: try out and failed items analysis in their own schools; (1) collecting the German language structure test (be able to send via e-mail); (3) evaluation PPM agenda.

This PPM agenda held condusively. All of the workshop participants (100%) understood evaluation theory related to the students' achievement in German language learning, especially to planning, product, try out and validity and reliability of the German language structure test analysis. All of the participants (100%) practiced how to get validity and reliability of the German language structure test through Product moment by Pearson and SPSS 22 based IT. The participants (100%) be able to practice trying out their own German language instrument tests and 80% of them be able to analysis these instrument test.

Kata Kunci: developing research, German language test, instrument based of IT