

Food Safety Training for Businessmen Cafeteria and Food Stalls in the Campus Environment of Faculty of Engineering YSU

by Mutiara Nugraheni, Andian Ari Anggraeni

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this devotion is an activity of this PPM aims to increase the knowledge and awareness to businessmen cafeteria and food stalls in the campus environment FT. UNY in terms: hygiene and food safety sanitation manager cafeteria and food stalls around the hapless UNY Reef and did the selection process foodstuffs, food production and sanitation standards products storage facility. The method used is the devotion of the lectures and mentoring. Participants who attend training 24 people consisting of 10 persons of natural engineering faculty cafeteria and 14 people from the culinary garden Coral Malang. Public service executed twice with lectures and discussion on sanitation hygiene, personal hygiene and disease-causing foods, hygiene equipment, lay out the kitchen and animal and pest control. The test is done to find out the understanding of the material provided shows that the average rating is 91, 21. This suggests that participants understand the given material regarding sanitation and food safety hygiene. The expectation that participants can implement material and insights gained in the training to improve food safety guarantees for consumers.

Kata Kunci: sanitation hygiene, food safety, canteen