

Blended Learning Strategy Training for Elementary School Teachers in Bantul . Regency

by Pujiriyanto, Anik Ghufron, Deni Hardianto

ABSTRACT

This community service activity program aims to; (1) improve teachers' knowledge and understanding of distance learning strategies, (2) improve elementary school teachers' abilities on how to integrate technology and pedagogical models in distance learning, (3) train teachers on how to implement distance learning using blended learning. The method of implementing this community service activity program is carried out by (1) training, (2) simulation, (3) discussion, (4) assignment and guidance. All activities are carried out in online mode through the zoom meeting that has been prepared. This community service activity program produces; (1) increasing the knowledge, understanding and skills of elementary school teachers in compiling and designing blended learning, (2). The results obtained in the field that the ability of teachers in preparing blended learning can be trained and improved and as many as 85% of teachers have been able to prepare blended learning lesson plans adapted to school conditions and the local environment, subdistrict Kepanewonan Banguntapan

Kata Kunci: learning strategy, blended learning