

Training of Class Action Research Proposal (PTK) for Teachers of Yogyakarta Religious Affairs Ministry Office

by Prof. Haryadi

ABSTRACT

Classroom Action Research is very important to be understood by teachers to improve teachers' professionalism. This type of research can help teachers in overcoming difficulties scientifically, especially related to teaching and learning process and the quality of learning outcomes. ng well documented. The results of this study can be converted into scientific articles that can be used for promotion. The Classroom Action Research Training (PTK) is packaged by the Department of Applied Linguistics in the form of community service activities (PkM) under the title "Training of Class Action Research Proposal (PTK) for Teachers of the Office of the Ministry of Religious Affairs of Yogyakarta Municipality" involving lecturers and students. Training for the first two days of August 20, 2016 from 8:00 to 15:00 pm, the second 3 September 2016 from 8:00 to 12:00 pm. Participants are teachers Madrasaah Tsnawiyah (MTs) and Madrasah Aliyah (MA) Religious Affairs Ministry Office Yogyakarta, Yogyakarta Special Region number 20 people. Materials provided on (1) insights on action research, (2) classroom action research, (3) preparation of classroom action research proposals, and (4) Indonesian scientific papers. The results of this study are proposals prepared by participants who will then be followed up with research in each school. As proof of participation, the participants get certificates. The budget for organizing this activity is Rp 12,500,000.00 (twelve million five hundred thousand rupiahs), which is used for the purposes of procurement of upgrading materials, consumption, payday and committee honors, committee meetings, and reporting.

Kata Kunci: PTK, proposal. teacher