

PUBLIC SPEAKING TRAINING AND MENTORING FOR SMKN 1 GODEAN SLEMAN STUDENTS

by Suranto Aw., Pratiwi Wahyu Widiarti, Chatia Hastasari

ABSTRACT

This community service activities aims to improve knowledge, understanding and application of public speaking by SMKN 1 Godean Sleman students and improve the achievements with more know about public speaking.

The activity method used is the theoretical and practical training which includes lectures, question and answer, discussion, problem solving, practice and direct mentoring to the students when doing public speaking practice.

The results achieved from this devotional activity is training materials are very relevant to the needs of target audiences and can be accepted, and can be perceived benefits. Based on the evaluation of activities, inputs are obtained so that this kind of devotional activity is carried out continuously by raising other themes relevant to the needs of the audience and in accordance with the expertise of the servants in the field of education of the administrative office

Kata Kunci: training, mentoring, public speaking