ABSTRACT

This activity aims to find out: 1) young people's skills in Koplak, Umbulmartani, Sleman, Yogyakarta in music processing;; 2) the interest of young people in the Koplak, Umbulmartani, Sleman, Yogyakarta in music making.

To achieve this goal, a manual harmony workshop (accompanying songs) was held for youth in Koplak, which numbered 12 people.. The activity was held in Koplak, Umbulmartani, Sleman, Yogyakarta in May - July 2019 for 12 hours of study. The activity began with a discussion meeting and a technical explanation of the workshop activities, and continued with the workshop accompanying the song (manual harmony) both with the guitar and with the keyboard. In the practice exercise, time was also provided for questions and answers from participants to the workshop supervisor. The activity ended with the practice of accompanying popular songs guided by the supervisor (PPM team).

The results of the activities show that this workshop can improve: 1) young people's skills in music processing, especially in terms of song accompaniment; 2) the interest of young people in practicing music, both accompanying songs, and in vocal processing. Another important point is this workshop was also able to improve the knowledge, understanding, and insight about the workshop participants to accompanying the song, and sing properly.
