

DIGITAL PARENTING BERBASIS SEKOLAH UNTUK WALI MURID SD UNGGULAN AISIYIAH BANTUL

by Dyna Herlina S. Gilang Jiwana, Benni Setiawan

ABSTRACT

Community Service activities aims to equip parents in order to be able to apply the right upbringing patterns in the digital era and the accompanying the children to be able to make use of digital media for the purpose of earning while avoiding impact downside. The target goal is Superior elementary school Aisiyiah Regent of Bantul class 4B.

The method used is the activity of the preparation of guide books, lectures, practice, mentoring and parenting faqs digital literacy for 3 months.

Results achieved from these activities are: (1) training material is very relevant to the needs of the target audience and be accepted, (2) parents are able to understand the changes in the values of life in the digital age, (3) parents are able to develop patterns of caregiving the right in the digital age, (4) parents are able to install the application useful parenting control reduces the negative impact of digital media for children, (5) parents are able to accompany the children to access digital media applications to bermanfaat the education of children.

Kata Kunci: pelatihan, digital parenting