

View of the Social Dimensions of D. I. Yogyakarta Society About Sports During the Covid 19 Pandemic

by Caly Setiawan, Muh. Hamid Anwar, Fathan Nurcahyo

ABSTRACT

This study aims to find out how well the views of the social dimension of the D. I. Yogyakarta community regarding sports during the covid 19 pandemic.

This type of research is quantitative descriptive research using survey methods. The population in this study is the entire community in the D.I. Yogyakarta from various age groups, gender and social status who are doing sports in sports venues. The sample used in this study amounted to 1349 people who were taken by random and incidental sampling or can be referred to as incidental random sampling. The instrument used to collect data in this study was in the form of a closed questionnaire or questionnaire which was presented online through a google form and a direct manual questionnaire which was compiled and developed by the research team and several experts through the focus group discussion (FGD) stage. The data analysis technique used in this study was carried out with statistical analysis formulas with percentages outlined in 5 categories, namely: very good, good, moderate, poor and very poor.

The results of the research from a sample of 1349 respondents showed that the view of the social dimensions of the D.I. Yogyakarta regarding sports during the Covid 19 pandemic in detail obtained the distribution of data as many as 78 respondents (5.78%) were in the "very good" category, as many as 365 respondents (27.06%) were in the "good" category, as many as 467 respondents ( 34.62%) were in the "medium" category, 365 respondents (27.06%) were in the "less" category and 74 respondents (5.49%) were in the "very poor" category.

Kata Kunci: Keywords: Views, Social Dimension, Sports, C-19 Pandemic.