

Tracing the Leadership Characters of the Javanese Kings Based on Classical Manuscript and the Implementation on the Present Leadership

by Endang Nurhayati, Hesti Mulyani, dan Venny Indria Ekowati

ABSTRACT

The study, entitled Tracing the Leadership Characters of the Javanese Kings Based on Classical Manuscript and the Implementation on the Present Leadership, aims to: (1) describing the leadership values of the Javanese kings contained in the old Javanese manuscripts, (2) describing the leadership values of the Javanese kings that are still relevant to the values of the present leadership, and (3) finding design of the leadership model that is relative to survive in the various changes in civilization. This study uses literature research with data sources in the form of Javanese classical manuscript entitled "Serat Wedhatama dan Serat Wulangreh". Based on the result of the discussion, the analysis was conducted using qualitative analysis techniques. Based on the results of the discussion, it was obtained a conclusion that the leadership characters for the most emphasized in the two literary works of the Javanese kings sequentially, are: humble, cautious, patient, devout, concerned, hardworking, hardworking, capable of self introspection, resolute, upholding the values of decency, earnest, and others.

Kata Kunci: Leadership characters, Javanese Kings