

TRAINING TO STRENGTHEN RELIGIOUS CHARACTER AND NATIONALISM FOR INDONESIAN STUDENTS AT INTERNATIONAL ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY MALAYSIA

by Syukri Fathudin Achmad Widodo, Betania Kartika, Apri Nuryanto, Sukardi, Chrisna Tri Harjanto, Tri Adi Prasetya

ABSTRACT

Community service is part of the tri dharma of higher education which must be carried out by lecturers at Yogyakarta State University. Community Service with the title Training on Strengthening Religious Character and Nationalism for Indonesian Students at the International Islamic University Malaysia was carried out because there were several problem factors, including life adjustment, academic adjustment, socio-cultural adjustment, and personal psychological adjustment. The aim of implementing this community service is to 1) strengthen the character and self-concept of Indonesian students at the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), 2) strengthen the Religious character of Indonesian students at the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), and 3) strengthen the character condition The nationalism of Indonesian students at the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM), 4) strengthens the motivation of Indonesian students at the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM). The target audience is the community of Indonesian citizens who are studying at the International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) and Indonesian students in the surrounding area with around 40 students studying in undergraduate and postgraduate programs. Activity programs that are expected to be able to resolve these problems include 1) Religious-based character strengthening programs, 2) Nationalism-based character strengthening programs and 3) motivational programs. This strengthening program is carried out using the workshop method, FGD, lectures, questions and answers, discussions and ends with an evaluation. Evaluation of this training activity was carried out using posttest, pretest and questionnaires. The expected mandatory output is a scientific article resulting from PPM published in an Indexed Journal/Proceedings. Additional outputs expected are publications on social media/print media and Cooperation Papers/MoA/MoU/IA.

Kata Kunci: Training, Strengthening Character Education, Religion, Nationalism