

IMPROVEMENT OF TEACHER COMPETENCE THROUGH TRAINING FOR MAKING LEARNING MEDIA USING COREL DRAW

by Sugiyem, Asi Tritanti

ABSTRACT

The training aims to: (1) Increase knowledge and skills of teachers in making learning media using the program Corel Draw, (2) To produce instructional media that can be applied to help the learning process in the classroom. Target activities are 12 vocational teachers of tourism in Yogyakarta. The method used in the training include: (1) Lectures in the form of an explanation of media, theory Corel Draw, Corel Draw facilities. (2) Demonstration of making the media using Corel Draw program, (3) The practice of making media. The results of this training are: (1) ncreased knowledge and skills of 12 teachers in making learning media using corel draw, (2) Completion of instructional media 10 media consisting of jobsheet, handouts, and materials in the form of power point. The presence of the participants during the training 100% fulfilled. Understanding of theories as much as 85% of the participants understand the theory presented team. While based on the results of the practice 83% of teachers are able to make learning media by using Corel Draw program. Based on the mastery of the material 78% of teachers said no difficulties in operating corel. All participants expressed satisfaction with the training because getting new experiences and knowledge in making instructional media

Kata Kunci: training, instructional media, corel draw