

Training of Early Childhood Motoric Learning Development through Play for PAUD Educators in Kabupaten Sleman

by Agus Susworo Dwi Marhaendro, R Sunardianta, Amat Komari, Bandi Utama

ABSTRACT

The aim of PPM activities is to equip PAUD teachers in PPM participants in Sleman regency to gain both theoretical and practical experience regarding interesting and enjoyable learning through playing in developing early childhood motor skills.

The target of PPM activities is 32 PAUD teachers in Sleman Regency, covering Pakem, Turi, and Ngaglik Subdistricts, the PPM in collaboration with HIMPAUDI Pakem District. PPM is implemented in the Hargibunangun, Pakem, Sleman Refugee Barracks Method of implementing PPM activities through tutorials and practices. Evaluate the implementation of activities using observation sheets and product assessment sheets. Data analysis using descriptive analysis percentage.

The results of PPM activities are as follows: (1) the results of process evaluations are that PPM participants gain satisfaction, conformity to needs, PPM participants are enthusiastic and participants understand how early childhood learning through play, (2) product evaluation results are 32 draft drafts for learning, and (3) the results of the meaningful evaluation that this PPM activity is meaningful in a very good and good category. Then it can be concluded that the PPM activity can equip the teacher's understanding of learning through playing and being able to make it individually

Kata Kunci: Learning, playing, early childhood