

Scientific Writing Training for Elementary School Teachers in Bantul Regency

by Dwi Retno Sri Ambarwati, Hajar Pamadhi, Eni Puji Astuti, Bambang Prihadi, Sigit Wahyu Nugroho.

ABSTRACT

Community Service Activities is aimed at training elementary school teachers in Bantul regency about the mastery in making scientific papers so as to achieve adequate competence so that the quality and competence of art and culture teachers can be improved. The methods applied in this activity are lecture methods, discussions and the practice of writing scientific papers. From the results achieved visible increase in teacher insight about the writing of scientific papers and the increasing motivation of teachers to write scientific papers in accordance with their respective assemblies. At the end of the activity, the Team captured the meaningfulness of the program to the participants and the participants hoped that this program can be continuously held because it is very beneficial to improve teacher's insight on the writing of scientific papers.

Kata Kunci: Writing scientific papers, elementary teacher