

MODEL DEVELOPMENT BASED ON CULTURAL EDUCATION AT SMA DISTRICT GUNUNG KIDUL

by Mulyana, Suwardi, Suwarna

ABSTRACT

This study aims to develop culture-based education model, which consists of: (1) strategic plan development of culture-based education model, (2) guide the development of culture-based education model, and (3) the implementation guidelines for the development of education culture-based education model. In addition, this study also aims to assist graduate students in order to quickly pass by involving them in research. This research is an umbrella of student research, hereinafter referred to research children's umbrella.

This research is a research and development (R & D), which will be conducted over two (2) phases. The first phase, during the period from April to June, which is done is to examine the use of a development model based education culture in high school and constraints of operations, designing draft educational model based on culture as an integrative, organized focus group discussions with respondents experts and teachers to discuss the draft of the development of the educational model based on culture and make revisions. The study involved two graduate student education department of the Java language. Student research results will be used as consideration improve the draft development of culture-based education model. Phase two, to validate the model that has been developed in the first phase, to develop models and organize user focus group to discuss the draft guidelines, test-school model and revise product models and guides.

The results of the first year of research today is the first draft of culture-based education model, first draft culture-based education model, first draft design brief guide, 1 piece of journal articles. In addition, at the end of the research phase one and two students involved in this study is expected to complete his thesis (for 18 months). The results of the second phase are: (1) tervalidasinya 2 models, tervalidasinya guide the use of models in culture-based education in an integrative, 1 article, 2 student can complete his thesis.

Kata Kunci: model, development, cultural based, Gunung Kidul