

UNY CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL: EXPRESSION OF INDEPENDENCE OF YOUNG GENERATION

by Agus Untung, Drijastuti, Panca Putri, Yunike Juniarti.

ABSTRACT

This Community Service Program is a Campus Tourism scheme aims to promote and establish departmental cooperation UNY FBS Music Education with the wider community, honing skill and experience of music players and develop a sense of nationalism and love of the country through chamber music. PPM carried out at the UNY FBS Music Department with the name of the UCMF program (UNY Chamber Music Festival) 2018, which is a continuation of the first UCMF in 2017.

The method used is the demonstration method. UCMF held on September 8, 2018 and Rehearsal on September 7, 2018.

Participants come from the chamber group elementary, middle, high school and students from Yogyakarta and Central Java.

Each participant brings one or two songs with maximum duration of 10 minutes.

The results of the implementation of the UCMF activities are UNY FBS Music Department increasingly known among students from inside and outside the city of DIY, starting from elementary, middle, high school and even higher education. Relationship the collaboration between UNY's Faculty of Music and Music Department with the wider community and bind up with good. UCMF 2018 as a music expression room, skills and mentality and increase playing experience music as well as learning with various chamber music groups from inside and outside of DIY, as well as an effort to cultivate a sense of nationalism and love of the homeland.

Kata Kunci: festival, chamber music