

TRAINING OF MAKING BATIK COLET FOR STUDENTS SMK DIPONEGORO DEPOK

by Sugiyem, SriWidarwati, Emy Budiastuti

ABSTRACT

The purpose of this training is to provide knowledge about batik colet. The target activities are students of class XI Clothing Boutique in SMK Diponegoro Depok Sleman.

The method used in this training is a demonstration and practice of making batik scarf with the application of color using a brush and dye. The colors used are indigosol and naphthol. Evaluations were made on the results of student practice in which 97% of students were able to make a good motive. While the results of staining using a brush as much as 78% of students could color with very good category, while 22% in good categories. Based on the results of dyeing 90% of students were able to choose a base color that matches the color motif.

The conclusion of this training is most students are competent in making batik colet. Suggestions that need to be submitted is the student needs to continue to practice in scraping wax batik that will smooth the results obtained. In staining students can try to combine several staining techniques that have been submitted in order to obtain the results beautiful and rich colors of batik

Kata Kunci: training, batik colet